

PA, 63-CANON, 1-

2/15

PENNSYLVANIA
State

Washington County

CANONSBURG
Town or Vicinity

Roberts, John, Stone House (PENN-1177)
Structure

225 N. Central Ave. Stone and brick, U-shaped, 49' (five-bay front) x 57' (five-bay flank), two stories, gabled roof. Originally a log structure built c. 1804. Later additions of stone built before 1815. Log structure replaced by brick structure c. 1850. House served its original owner as a residence, merchantile business, post office, brew-house, and still. Later acquired by Jefferson College and used as vice-president's residence,

PENCIL DR, CRONAR NEG +
POS., FILE PRINTS

NO COVER

FILE PRINTS (over)

Form 10-444 (2/62)

...STORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

a professor's residence, student rooms and a classroom.
Notable features include stonework, main entrance, stair,
and cornice details. 11 sheets (1967, including site plan, plans, elevations, sections, details); HABSI form (1966).